

DAU – South Alumni Association
4th Annual Conference

“Transforming Acquisition in Support of the Warfighter”

February 21 – 22, 2007

Transformation represents a change in the way we think and how we approach our jobs. The DAU South Alumni Association is pleased to support DoD transformation efforts through a series of speakers, panels, and workshops designed to increase the awareness and insight into DoD transformation objectives. Don't miss the opportunity to attend this exciting conference that will feature workshops in Acquisition & Program Management, Business Cost & Finance, Contracting, Engineering & Technology and Production & Logistics and Learning Organizations. The conference is open to all government and industry professionals. All conference attendees will receive six Continuous Learning Points for the two days.

For additional information and registration procedures, please review the conference web site available at <http://dauaa.south.home.mchsi.com>.
